Robbie Ashe is a partner at Bondurant Mixson where he represents both plaintiffs and defendants in state and federal courts. He focuses on issues involving politics, governments and governmental authorities throughout Georgia, particularly the City of Atlanta, metro Atlanta governments and the Georgia General Assembly. In 2010, Robbie was appointed by the City of Atlanta to serve on the Board of Directors for the Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority (MARTA). Robbie was elected by his colleagues to serve as the Chairman of the Board for 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018, and currently serves as the Treasurer.

Robbie's government and political experience includes:

- Negotiating transfers of government assets worth tens of millions of dollars.
- Supervising teams of governmental finance experts and attorneys in the evaluation, negotiation and implementation of issues involving:
  - government procurement codes, including procurement disputes;
  - redevelopment issues, including condemnation, impact fees, and bonded indebtedness;
  - issuance of commercial paper by local government enterprise funds;
  - Georgia's Open Records Act and Open Meetings Act;
  - sales and property tax disputes, exemptions, and appeals; and
  - government ethics and campaign finance issues.
- Planning and executing multi-year, public communications and advocacy campaigns resulting in multiple successful multi-billion dollar sales tax referenda.
- Negotiating consolidation of Atlanta's court system.
- Advising the election and re-election campaigns of several Atlanta mayors, members of the Atlanta City Council and the Atlanta Public School Board, and numerous Georgia General Assembly members.
- Defended Mayor Keisha Lance Bottoms' victory throughout recount challenge.

Recent Representative Work

- Successfully represented Mayor Keisha Lance Bottoms and the City Council of the City of Atlanta in the lawsuit Governor Kemp brought in an effort to invalidate the Mask Order implemented by Mayor Bottoms.
- Successfully defended a $250 million food and beverage concessions contract award through an administrative protest, an administrative appeal, and multiple rounds of litigation.
