

Bondurant Mixson & Elmore

From the time it was founded in 1977 by legendary trial lawyer Emmett Bondurant, the firm of Bondurant Mixson & Elmore has confidently shunned the notion that stature increases with office size, focusing instead on enlisting A-list talent to dominate and win high-stakes cases. The Atlanta litigation boutique has attracted top talent from around the nation because of this formidable philosophy, and Bondurant Mixson's competitors routinely state, "I don't judge by size but by quality, and they are very, very good." The firm promotes skill, efficiency and innovation in its case management and is known for its strengths in general commercial, antitrust, class actions, employment, environmental, intellectual property and white collar. The firm's client base is made up of public and private institutions with national clients that include Novelis, Delta Air Lines, Avon Products and Brinks Home Security.

The firm's top-notch talent roster includes name partner Lamar "Mickey" Mixson, a nationally recognized trial lawyer who has secured multimillion-dollar jury verdicts for clients such as Six Flags, which was awarded $454 million dollars in a breach of fiduciary duty case against Time Warner. The verdict was the largest in Georgia's history.

Distinguished litigator Jeffrey Bramlett is a past president of the State Bar of Georgia and is highly regarded for his broad trial and appellate practice that includes securities fraud, professional liability, civil rights enforcement and RICO actions. Partner

Frank Lowrey is also praised by peers for his strengths in antitrust matters at both the trial and appellate level. Edward Krugman is a highly experienced Georgia practitioner who acts as counsel for both sides in antitrust and unfair competition matters and intellectual property disputes concerning trademark, copyright, trade secrets and patent issues.
